

Learning Outcomes

- ◆ Participants will identify strategies for early care and education providers to communicate effectively with families about the possibility of their infant or toddler being identified as having a disability.
- ◆ Participants will identify strategies that support early care and education providers as they work with families during the initial identification period.

Session 4 Handout #1