

Exploration and Discovery, Video 2

Jen: Cap. You see the water?

Mother: [Speaks native language]

Jen: I'm gonna add some color.

Mother: She just want to feed the duck. [Laughs]

Jen: I understand. We're gonna -- We'll do some water play. Do you mind if we -- We'll spread this out and then she can play in the water. Look, look, look. Ready? Miss Jen's gonna add a drop and let's see if the water changes colors.

Mother: Oh, yes! [Speaks native language]

Jen: We make yellow water for the duck.

Mother: Yellow.

Girl: Yellow.

Jen: Let's put the cap --

Mother: Yellow.

Jen: Here, can you shake it up?

Mother: Want to shake, shake, shake? [Speaks native language] Shake, shake, shake.

Jen: Shake, shake, shake.

Mother: Shake, shake, shake. [Speaks native language] Shake, shake, shake. Shake, shake.

Jen: Shake, shake, shake. [Gasps] Ooh!

Mother: Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake.

Jen: Oh, thank you. Look, should we make some red water? Look, you see it's clear? We're gonna add some drops to make it red.

Mother: Juice. [Laughs]

Jen: It does look like juice. It does look like juice.

Mother: Apple juice.

Girl: Apple juice.

Mother: Apple juice.

Jen: Do you like apple juice? Look, you want to hold the cap?

You want to hold the water while I put it in?

Mother: [Speaks native language]

Jen: We're gonna put the cap on after we put the drops.

Mother: [Speaks native language]

Jen: Watch, watch, watch. Here's our red. Ready? Do you want to hold the water?

Girl: Ready.

Jen: Ready.

Girl: Ready.

Jen: One.

Mother: Ooh, great. [Speaks native language]

Jen: Two.

Mother: Shake, shake, shake.

Jen: We're gonna shake it up.

Mother: Shake, shake, shake. Come on. Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake.

Jen: Ooh!

Mother: Shake, shake, shake.

Girl: Juice.

Jen: That was so good. We made yellow juice and red juice. Is it for the duck?

Girl: [Inaudible]

Mother: [Speaks native language]

Jen: Thank you. Oh, thank you.
