

Counting and Cardinality, Video 2

Teacher: She's going to tell us how many hoops we're stepping into. Okay, close your eyes. Close your eyes. How many hoops now?

Girl: Two.

Teacher: Ah, you're too good for me. How many hoops now?

Girl: Three.

Teacher: You don't even have to count it, my goodness! You really can count well. All right, now how many?

Girl: One!

Teacher: Okay, close your eyes again. This is gonna be a super trick. Aha! This one's tricky. How many? Aha! What do you say when there's nothing at all? Ze—

Girl: There's no more.

Teacher: There's no more, so we say it's zer--Zero. There's nothing else.
