Mother: You already put circles in it.

Teacher: Is there a circle on your A? There's a circle on your A, huh? You can draw a circle on that one. There you go. Good job.

Mother: Get the tail. Her Daddy taught her all of this. Say, "No, not Mommy. Daddy."

Teacher: [Laughs]

Mother: Do your Y.

Teacher: Yeah, I have a wipe here. I can wipe it off and you can do it all over again.

Kaylee: Can I have it?

Mother: "Can I have it," she said.

Teacher: Do you want the wipe? Yeah, you can wipe it. Does it need to be a little bit more wet?

Mother: I don't think she had the wet spot. There you go. You want a blue? Maybe blue will show up better.

Teacher: Or there's green, or I think there might be a purple.

Mother: Yeah, that's blue. Start with K.

Teacher: Start with you K, huh?

Mother: It's not showing up.

Teacher: Maybe if you -- How about red? Would red work if you push a little bit harder?

Mother: Not hard enough to break it.

Teacher: There we go. That's a girl. Good job. You do do really good with your K. My knees are hurting. And then can you do your circle for your A? Good job, Miss Kaylee. Good job. She does wonderful, guys.

Mother: See what you do. You're such a good dad.

Teacher: Good job. [Laughs] All right.

Mother: I don't know why she's doing the circles, though.

Teacher: And your L.

Mother: Look at you go. You're doing so good.

Teacher: Do you know what letter that one is?

Mother: Say E. Hey, sing your ABCs for her. She could sing them all now.

Teacher: Good job, Miss Kaylee. [Gasp] You did it. High five. You did all of them.

Mother: You know what that says? That's a K-A-Y. No, Y. L-E-E.

Teacher: You did all of them.

Kaylee, you did wonderful at this station.
