

Engaging Fathers: Volunteers in the Classroom

[Background conversations]

Child: Put it on.

Father: You do it.

Child: Like it?

Father: Yeah.

Child: Look, I made my dad a necklace! Look, I made my dad a necklace!

Teacher: Ooh. Nice necklace.

Child: Daddy! Close your eyes. Child: Open them.

Father: Ooh.

Child: For you.

Father: For me? Thank you.

Child: Got to put in dryer.

Father: Okay, just put it right here? It's so nice! All right.

Teacher: I know, somebody put these here, and these things are supposed to slide back. Got it?

Father: High five. High five. High five.

Child: [Inaudible] My hands.

Father: Wash your hands, huh?
