

Social Emotional: Caregiver Comfort

Teacher: Oh!

Boy: [Crying]

Teacher: OK. All right. Come here. All right. OK.

Boy: [Continues crying]

Teacher: Look, your friend is... Thank you, Zariah. She wants to give you a hug. That's very nice of you, sweetheart. Your friend is trying to take care of you. She's trying to take care of you. All right, Zariah. It's OK. But I really appreciate you trying to make sure your friend feels OK. Would you like an ice pack, my friend? OK. Get the pencil.

Boy: [Continues crying]

Teacher: All right. It's OK. I know. That must have really hurt. That was a hard ... Let's put this back so no one else hits their head, OK? All right. Such a big boy. May I have my pen back, ma'am? For teacher's hands only. Where's your pencil? OK.

Teacher 2: Doreen, since we're done in the bathroom, let's go over here.
